Jeremiah lived in a very difficult time for the children of Israel. As a prophet he foretold the coming of the Babylonians who would destroy Judah and carry the remaining tribes of Israel into Exile. fellow Israelites. Jeremiah has been called the weeping prophet. Yet through all of this, he also prophesized a return to their land—that God would forgive and restore His people. Jeremiah expressed hope in a very dark time.

So I say, "My splendor is gone and all that I had hoped from the Lord."

I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall.

I well remember them,

and my soul is downcast within me.

Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed,

for his compassions never fail.

They are new every morning;

great is Your faithfulness.

I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion;

therefore I will wait for him."

(Lamentations 3: 18-24, NIV)

God's strength and compassion are sometimes most evident in the darkest times.
